Lions club on brink of folding

A 47-YEAR-OLD Axminster club will fold unless new members are found urgently.

Membership of Axminster & District Lions Club has plummeted to only seven, and president Jackie Swarbrick says that number is unsustainable.

To prove the point, vice-president Paul Jennings said that local worthy causes missed out on an estimated total pot of £3,000 because the club could not get the manpower for its Christmas float tour last December.

In 2014, the club raised £3,000 through the 21-day tour programme, but had to cancel the December 2015 schedule.

The Lions movement is part of Jackie's DNA. She explained: "The club was chartered in 1969 and

by Anders Larsson

my father, David Swarbrick, was the driving force getting it started.

"I have been involved with the club since its formation.

"I am president again this year (third term). Years back I was a charter member of Ottery St Mary Lions club.

"Being a Lion is in my blood, raising money to help those less fortunate than ourselves is a way of helping our community.

"The Lions do so much good for so many people, I just hope others will be willing to join us and work alongside us to continue the work we have been doing since 1969."

Membership has fluctuated over the years, but the current figure is a low.

Jackie said: "In its heyday back in the 70s and 80s, the club had over 30 members although it used to be in the mid 20s most of the time.

"The Christmas float was started around 30 years ago, and was the first in the area.

"It has become a huge part of Axminster's Christmas, and we had many people asking why we weren't able to do it last year, and it really saddened me that we couldn't do it.

"I now live in Cornwall, and every previous year I have been able to call on friends to come out and help us when we were low on numbers.

"Sadly, this year we just didn't have enough members to do the runs even with the help from friends.

"The drop in numbers has been due to many things, members have moved away from the area, or their lives have become too busy and sadly one died."

Despite moving away from the town, she is desperate for the club to survive, and said: "With me moving to Cornwall, it is imperative that we get more Axminster people into the club to keep the heart in Axminster.

"Over the years we have raised a lot of money and helped local charities and individuals who were in need.

"Being a Lion is not as time-consuming as people may think. We say the priorities for us are family, work, Lions.

Vice-president Paul Jennings said there are two meetings a month and, usually, an event of some sort.

Members don't have to have a 100 per cent attendance record, so show up when able to do so.

Jackie added: "Axminster & District Lions Club has given money to numerous local charities over the years.

"We also help individuals who may be in need. For example, last year we gave away 10 hampers to families who, despite working and trying their best, were finding things a struggle.

"They did not ask for help, but were extremely happy to receive this little pat on the back.

"Many clubs are very low in numbers, not just ours.

"Sadly, there are so many other calls on people's spare time, giving your time for the benefit of others isn't high on most people's agendas.

"We are not very good at shouting about all the good stuff we do, or the fact we need more people to come on board to keep the club going.

"I just hope others will be willing to join us and work alongside us to continue the work we have been doing since 1969.

"It's fun and very satisfying, indeed, to know that you are doing something to help make a difference to others."

SEATON Councillors reject 'living wage' town

AN ATTEMPT to try to make Seaton a 'Living Wage Town' has failed. The majority of town councillors voted against a proposal that the town council should actively support a move towards Seaton becoming "the first Living Wage Town in East Devon".

Minutes from the meeting only say: "Resolved that the motion fails," and does not give a result from the vote nor the reason for the motion's failure. Councillor Shaw, however, says the motion was defeated 6-2.

It is understood that those voting against felt that many local businesses could not afford to pay the Living Wage rate (currently £8.25 per hour).

Councillor Shaw told Pulman's View said that employers who paid the Living Wage generally reported better satisfaction with retention of employees. He also said he was disappointed with the vote, and added: "It is essential to raise wages in Seaton and elsewhere in East Devon, which has recently been reported as one of the least affordable areas in the country to live."

From the editor's chair Let's hope Lions roar again

I WAS saddened to hear that the Lions Club of Axminster and District could fold if more members do not come forward.

Back in 1969, when I was editor of the old Axminster News, I was a founder member of the Lions Club. Well, I was – and I wasn't.

Those anxious to see the Lions active in Axminster needed a minimum number to enable a club to be formed and I was virtually dragged off the street to make up the numbers, I think by founder member Dave Swarbrick.

I was able to recall this story when I was kindly invited to propose the toast to the club on its 40th anniversary.

I couldn't hazard a guess of how much money the Lions have raised for local good causes in the 47 years since they held their first meeting. It would run into many thousands of pounds.

Now the organisation, which has branches all over the world, has only seven members. Coincidentally, the current President is Jackie Swarbrick, daughter of founding member Dave who has followed in her father's footsteps in giving so much to the organisation over the years. There have been others who have given sterling service to the Lions, including Emrys Pearce, John Jeffery and Jamie Love, among many others.

Jackie has appealed for more people to offer their services to the Lions and help them continue their fine work for charity which has benefited so many local organisations.

As reported below, it is not possible to continue with such a low membership and one casualty was the Lions Christmas Float tour which in 2014 raised £3,000.

Hopefully, a few willing bodies will come forward to ensure that Axminster Lions roar again.

COLYTON Inspector approves houses off Coly Road

A PLANNING appeal to build five houses on land off Coly Road, Colyton, has been approved after an inspector dismissed East Devon's housing policies as "out of date".

The application for five houses, the formation of site access and estate roads, footway and parking provision on land south of Yaffles on Coly Road was last year refused by East Devon District Council, but has now been approved after the applicant appealed against the decision.

Colyton Parish Council recommended refusal of the application last year, as it felt it would result in overdevelopment of the site.

Parish councillors were also particularly concerned about the "hazardous" access to the site, which posed a danger to road users in an area where there had previously been a fatality.

SIDMOUTH Town council to create neighbourhood plan

SIDMOUTH Town Council have announced they will create a neighbourhood plan and are looking for local volunteers to join the steering group.

Sidmouth Town Council believe that it will enable Sid Vale residents to have their say on the future of the area and in a statement released by the council, a spokesman said: "The aim is to work as a whole community to develop a plan which reflects the aspirations of us all for the future of Sidmouth."

To allow residents to find out more, Sidmouth Town Council has organised a public event for Tuesday, January 19th at St Teresa's Church Hall.

OTTERY ST MARY Council says 'no' to West Hill breakaway

OTTERY St Mary Town Council has voted against West Hill's bid to breakaway and form its own parish council.

At an emergency meeting, held at Ottery Town Council offices on Thursday (January 7th), the council debated for nearly two hours before voting on whether or not they should support the bid.

Ottery St Mary Town Council does not have the final say on the issue but their recommendation will be noted by East Devon District Council, however, ultimately, their opinion might be ignored by EDDC, when it comes to CEO Mark Williams making his decision.

It is still not known when West Hill will discover their fate but it is thought Mark Williams will make his decision in early spring.

AXMINSTER Lions club on the brink of folding

A 47-YEAR-OLD Axminster club will fold unless new members are found urgently.

Membership of Axminster & District Lions Club has plummeted to only seven, and president Jackie Swarbrick says that number is unsustainable.

To prove the point, vice-president Paul Jennings said that local worthy causes missed out on an estimated total pot of £3,000 because the club could not get the manpower for its Christmas float tour last December.

In 2014, the club raised £3,000 through the 21-day tour programme, but had to cancel the December 2015 schedule.

Jackie added: "Axminster & District Lions Club has given money to numerous local charities over the years."

"I just hope others will be willing to join us and work alongside us to continue the work we have been doing since 1969."

SOUTH SOMERSET Aggressive dogs a growing problem

AGGRESSIVE dogs are becoming a growing problem in South Somerset, according to the district council.

South Somerset District Council (SSDC) has seen a 28 per cent increase in complaints about "unacceptable dog behavior" and describes it as a "saddening and concerning trend", which can lead to aggression and threats between dog owners.

In 2012/13 there were 68 complaints made, which rose to 87 in 2014/15.

Commenting on the statistics, a council spokesperson said: "The reason for the increase is not known but it is a concerning trend. The 28 per cent increase includes complaints regarding dogs being aggressive towards people and other animals."

"Incidents often arise because people do not have dogs under proper control or are not always appreciative that some dogs require space. Not all dogs behave the same or have the same temperament."

"If anyone asks you not to approach their dog, or asks for your own dog to be controlled, then please pay attention to the request. Usually they are not being rude but simply trying to avoid an incident occurring."

Cranberries team take over Kilmingington's Old Inn

A VILLAGE pub will retain its old English country charm, the new owner has promised.

Steven Littley says that apart from extended opening hours, there will be no change at The Old Inn, Kilmingington, and that a "wholly positive 2016 awaits".

It was recently announced that Mr Littley and Verity Charles of Cranberries Hideaway had bought the lease of the pub.

They have taken over from Leigh and Duncan Colvin, who had been in charge since 2007.

Mr Littley said: "The handover was seamless and problem-free, and we again thank Duncan and Leigh for all their help.

"The opportunity to acquire The Old Inn will add to the facilities already available at Cranberries to our guests and local visitors.

"The pub will retain its old English country charm with no major changes apart from opening hours.

"The plan is to open for breakfast from 8am, all-day opening

by Anders Larsson
anders@pemedias.co.uk

and extended hours for Sunday lunch."

To cope with the extra activity, the existing staff roster of 12 has been upped to 18, including chef Claudiu Turdeanu and front-of-house Jason Locke.

Mr Littley explained: "These two are extremely experienced in the hospitality industry and will ensure the good reputation of The Old Inn will be maintained and enhanced."

He also said that the facilities, like the skittle alley, will be open for use to local clubs and teams, and added: "Any suggestions from local people as to what they want the pub to do are welcome, please let us know.

"The acquisition has been a great opportunity for Cranberries Hideaway and we plan to create a fantastic facility for the local community to use as well as bringing in further trade from Cranberries Hideaway.

"A wholly positive 2016 awaits us."

Last chance for The Castle

■ AN AXMINSTER pub has been bought and reopened by its former landlady, who couldn't bear seeing it boarded up.

But Bel Polanek has made it clear that this is the last chance for The Castle.

Over the last few years The Castle has seen landlords come and go, with spells of closure as a result.

When the most recent landlord left last year, then owner Punch Taverns boarded the pub up.

Bel Polanek, who already runs The Lamb in Axminster, stepped in and bought The Castle from Punch Taverns at the end of last year.

She admits sentimental reasons played a big part in her decision, and said: "I used to own it.

"I bought it about 25 years ago and had ten good years there.

"I only sold it because it was so smoky and I'm asthmatic.

"It is a sentimental thing, I couldn't bear seeing it boarded up."

The pub currently has 23 conditions attached to its license, which has proved a major problem for previous landlords.

Bel said: "I hope to lift some of them over time.

"It will be run professionally by new manager Rob Andrews, who is very enthusiastic, and the customers know this is the last chance.

In a message on social media, she said: "It is going to be a long road but The Castle must never die.

"We must all remember that this is the very last chance for The Castle.

"I am expecting everyone to respect the neighbours and respect the pub, please don't let me down as I have faith in you all.

"Also, remember I am only up at The Lamb and you don't want me coming down looking over my glasses and hearing my loud voice.

"Enjoy The Castle and treat her with care."

A Punch Taverns spokesperson confirmed the sale, saying: "I can confirm that Punch Taverns sold The Castle, Axminster, in December 2015.

Twins triumph with 'brick or potato'

ENTREPRENEURIAL Musbury twins have ended up in the national spotlight with a novel business idea.

An unlikely brick and potato combo has proved so popular that Robbie and Justin Holt took orders for £14,000 in about two months.

Business continues to be good, and the 24-year-olds have already despatched orders worldwide.

The idea is simple; customers order a brick or potato which is sent anonymously to a friend, loved one or 'enemy' with a message of no more than 140 characters.

When asked how the business venture came about, Justin said: "It was completely random. We were thinking of the most ridiculous things we could sell online.

by Anders Larsson
anders@pemedial.co.uk

"I suggested a brick, and my brother suggested a potato."

As a result, brickorpotato.com was born.

Speaking to Pulman's View in early December, Justin said that potatoes had proved slightly more popular so far.

He explained: "We have had local customers but a lot of it is from up north."

"I'd say that probably 60-70 per cent of orders are from places like Liverpool and Manchester."

"Many others are football-related, banter between friends after their respective teams have met."

Another popular message is: "You are the biggest brick I know." Nobody knows about the longevity of the concept, but it has already been featured in the national press.

Justin said: "We have already taken orders from Europe and the rest of the world."

"We'll carry on for as long as we can, and continue to donate to the Ballboys charity, which fights testicular cancer."

They both attended Musbury Primary School and The Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis. Robbie then studied business at university while Justin tackled psychology.

The former currently works as an investment analyst, and Robbie as a car broker – but both take the brick or potato business very seriously indeed.

Community hero strikes again

A COMMUNITY champion and West Hill resident's kind-hearted gesture which inspired others to not spend Christmas alone has once again been hailed as a success this year.

In 2014 Betty Williams paid for 50 strangers to sit down and enjoy a turkey meal. At this year's event she had the help of the town council, and the event was hosted by Ron and Angi Miles, owners of the Lamb and Flag and Phyllis Baxter from the tourist information centre also lent her support.

A Christmas sing-a-long was organised by Juliet Squire and Bruce Odlin to cap off a truly festive and heart-warming day.

Seaton designer sets up in London

A FORMER Seaton Primary School pupil has set up his own clothing and accessories brand in London.

Twenty-five-year-old Toby King started Merpola less than a year ago but already has his debut collection – consisting of T-shirt prints, beanie hats and tote bags – on sale.

Business is done online and Toby explained: "It is very much a one-man-band right now."

"I do everything from design and manufacture the collection, update the website and run the business side of things simultaneously, it is a lot of work, but it is very rewarding."

The idea for Merpola came about when he came into contact with what he calls "a really unethical business".

He said: "It made me realise exactly how I would want to run my own and taught me a lot about how not to do things."

"That's when I approached The Prince's Trust for support, which have been incredible and really helped me get my business off the ground."

"I'm already starting to come up with ideas for Collection II. I would love to concentrate on creating more clothing and getting out there to show off the label – right now I feel like I'm chained to a computer making sure everything is running smoothly."

He describes his garments as "swampwear brand – streetwear meets kitsch".

Christmas lunch for solo townfolk

■ OVERVIEW: Guests enjoying the lunch

ALL Saints' Village Hall resounded to laughter, singing and entertainment on Christmas Day when around 45 people sat down for Christmas lunch.

Organised by Axminster Churches Together, the event was aimed at people in and around the town living on their own.

The event was widely supported and featured wine from The Conservative Club, Christmas pudding and trifle from Tesco plus the Co-op's mince pies and cream.

Volunteers Sandy, Christine, Penny and Sue – assisted by chef Nick Goodwin, aka the Axminster Town Crier – worked tirelessly before, during and after the event.

One of the organisers, Lesley Frankau, said: "Volunteers to meet and greet on each table looked after guests, assisted by a team of silver service waiters and waitresses.

"After listening to Nick and Sandy who sang a medley of seasonal songs with their guitars and watching the Queen's Christmas broadcast on a television brought in for the occasion, guests were handed Christmas cards and individual bags of presents to take home with them.

"Seeing the smiles on guests' faces and the buzz of laughter made the whole event a truly joyful occasion and one that none of us would have missed for the world.

"Our thanks to the local organisations who donated funds to help us make the day such a successful one.

"Our gratitude to Swards and their driver, who went the extra mile; Colyton Butchers for their contribution of boxes of chocolates, cards and pigs in blankets.

"Fernhill Hotel, Charmouth for the delicious Christmas cakes; Paul Hayward and family who donated the turkey crowns, crackers and the hamper; Bel of the Lamb for the delicious vegetarian nut roasts.

"Pat, Lesley and Christine for the bottles of Sherry.

"Millers Farm Shop who sourced the vegetables, Paula Grant from Wheatfields who supplied additional cooked dishes as well as cooking the turkey crowns and all those who came along to decorate the hall on Christmas Eve and help with the food preparation.

"Lastly, to All Saints Village Hall Committee, who let us use the hall free of charge for two days.

"Praise also for retired veterinary Michael Shaw, who donated a magnificent, large bottle of Prosecco for the helpers to enjoy – still to be quaffed at some stage by all those who worked so hard to make the day such a success."

Lesley felt the event was a great advert for community spirit, and said: "So many people volunteered their services throughout December; the response from Axminster was phenomenal and as a result so many people had a wonderful Christmas lunch instead of spending the day alone.

"Commissions to those who were unwell and could not join us on the day; we hope you will be able to come to the Christmas lunch we are planning for December 2016.

"A very happy New Year to everyone who proved that Axminster and surrounding villages are a wonderful place in which to live."

Flamingo Pool's year in review

FLAMINGO Pool manager Steve Buxton has reported a very positive year for the facility.

The decision to employ reception staff has, he said, created a more efficient, professional working environment. He thanked them for their hard work, and his management team, especially senior support manager Gareth Parker.

The biggest event at the Axminster pool in 2015 was the acquisition of the People's Millions £50,000 grant for an aquagym, engineered by Dana Haydon-Sycamore and supported by the local community via a voting system.

Mr Buxton thanked everyone who voted and added that the aquagym is proving to be a very popular addition and is well used.

Axe Vale Festival continues to support Flamingo Pool. Without that financial input, life would be more difficult as there is always something requiring replacement or updating, Mr Buxton added: "We appreciate everything that they do for the pool."

Vinetta Cable of Hammetts Accountants, who presented the accounts, praised the facility and the way in which it has been run.

Flamingo Pool chairman Richard Peacock said there were too many individuals to name, adding: "You know who you are, so a great big thank you from the Flamingo Pool". He also praised committee members for their unstinting efforts, Mr Buxton and his dedicated staff, concluding: "It is a very happy thought, that we have lifeguards and teachers working at the pool, who first learnt to swim at the Flamingo Pool, what a legacy this wonderful facility is creating."

The committee would welcome anyone who would be interested in helping to support this independently-financed facility.

More information is available from Mr Buxton on 01297 35800 or by e-mailing info@flamingopool.co.uk

Minster Christmas Concert

THE Minster was full and echoed to the joyous sounds of festive songs for an excellent and enjoyable Axminster Heritage Christmas Concert.

by Anders Larsson
anders@pemedial.co.uk

Axminster Heritage member

Andrew Moulding welcomed the audience and introduced the 50-strong plus choir, led by musical director Edward Jacobs.

A fabulous program had been arranged for the evening with a mix of favorite Carols and popular Christmas songs.

Edward invited the audience to join in for some of the numbers and got a very enthusiastic response!

Wine and refreshments gave everyone a break and an opportunity to catch their breath.

Then the evening went on to finish with audience calls of 'En-core' and Andrew thanking organisers, Edward and the Choir and all those who attended for making it such an enjoyable and successful event.

Funds raised will go towards both Axminster Heritage and a new kitchen for the Minster.

Axminster station on TV

AXMINSTER and its train station will feature on the latest series Great British Railway Journeys.

The show, which will air on January 14th on BBC Two at 6.30pm, sees host Michael Portillo journey the length and breadth of Britain by train, referring to a Victorian guidebook written by George Bradshaw as he describes how the various destinations he visits have changed over the years.

Now in its seventh series, the TV crew recently arrived in Axminster and met with members of Axminster Heritage to learn more about the town. According to the heritage society, Michael was very familiar with Axminster Carpets and was delighted to take a tour of Thomas Whitby House to see the extensive refurbishment of the original factory for the future museum.

Best small business

CARE furnishing company The Umbrella Group left Axminster on a high, clinching the Best Small Business category at this year's Devon Venus Awards.

The company beat off stiff competition from four other finalists and more than 80 other applicants in the category.

The Umbrella Group is a specialist commercial furnishings company specialising in the care sector.

Managing Director Rebecca Lippett said: "A person's surroundings are so important to their physical and mental wellbeing and we are working with care providers nationally to spread that message.

"We're absolutely thrilled to have been given this award. Our hard working team are passionate about what we do and it's wonderful to be recognised for that."

Jane and David are Beer's bake off champions

BAKE Off mania came to Beer over the festive period – and, typically, it had an East Devon seaside twist

by Kevin Fahey

which was held in the Long Bar of the Dolphin Hotel, stipulated that the cake must have at least two layers, be based on a theme of Beer village and finally – and crucially – must feature a seagull. Chef Andy Williams, who came up with the concept and judged the entries, was delighted with the response to the competition.

“It’s the largest amount of cakes we have seen in this competition so far with six amazing creations,” said Andy, who runs the Steamers Restaurant in the village.

“Each year the standard is growing and it is so great to see people taking part. The idea started out as a laugh between a couple of friends and now it’s grown I can’t wait to see what next year brings.”

This year’s master bakers were declared as Jane West and her partner David Grindley with their boats and seagull design while former postmaster Nigel Groves came runner-up with his six-tier postbox.

“It’s a team effort,” said Jane. “I bake, David then carves the cake to shape and I ice it and paint it.”

Prospective bakers who might like to have a go next Christmas should note December 27th in their diaries.

Lace group looks for new members

BEER Lace Group heads into 2016 in better shape than for many years – but would still love to see even more people try this beautiful traditional craft, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

Spokeswoman Sybil Anderson said the group now has around 15 members who meet every two weeks at the Beer Congregational Hall, where they receive tuition from one of the country's leading lace makers, Shirley Pavey from Chard.

"We would love to see some young people come along and have a go at lace making," said Sybil.

"Beer is so famous for its lace and we don't want it to die out so that is why it would be lovely to see some youngsters."

"We have had some in the past but then the pressures of exams come along and they don't have the time. But hopefully we have sown the seed and they will return later in life."

Sybil said no prior skills are required to join the group and anyone is welcome to come along and see what is involved.

"There used to be evening classes held by East Devon District Council and when they were ended we set up our own group in Beer," explained Sybil.

"We started with just four members and that has now grown to around 15 which is very encouraging but we could always do with more."

The next meeting in the hall at the rear of the church is on January 14th and further sessions will be every two weeks after that starting at 7pm.

Janet's book is a feline tale

CHRISTIAN Aid is to benefit from a book by Seaton-based author Janet Lang.

The book is about a cat, entitled Jasmine: The Queen That Never Was.

Janet said: "I didn't think I would write another book, nor have another cat after our lovely cat Dandy died – but here it is."

The book is described a "heart-warming story which describes the joys and sorrows, fascination and (sometimes) irritation – but also the humour of unexpectedly taking on a rehomed cat".

Proceeds from the book will go to Christian Aid, and Janet explained why by saying: "I served 32 very happy years on Seaton Christmas Aid Committee together with my husband John, who served 25 years on it, both of us retiring for health and age reasons."

But she is determined to continue her support, so so is delighted to publish the book to celebrate Christian Aid's 70th birthday this year.

The book is on sale at £10 from Seaton Design and Print Shop.

Phone orders can be made by calling Janet on 01297 22853.

Axminster Phoenix

AT the December meeting, Patricia Lowther gave a lively account of her appointment to the Establishment office of the House of Commons, primarily dealing with MPs' allowances. This caused a chortle amongst members, perhaps remembering problems in recent memory relating to MPs' allowances!

Councillor Paul Hayward was presented with a cheque for £150 towards the ACT Christmas Lunch for people living on their own.

Annual subscriptions are due in January when the new programme for 2016 will be handed out. The first speakers of the year will be Clem and Val Pryer talking about Narrow Boat Art on Wednesday, January 13th at 2.30 pm in the URC Hall. Visitors always welcome.

Hawkchurch ladies

THE Christmas meeting was royally entertained by fourteen members of The Lyme Luggers Ukelele Band dressed up for Christmas, one of the highlights of the year. The Luggers give their time to entertaining, whilst donating their fees to Lyme Regis charities.

Rivalling the Luggers in Christmas attire, the hall was aglow with members wearing their seasonal best and the buffet table groaned beneath the goodies the ladies supplied, with wine and soft drinks. A jolly good time was had by all - including The Luggers.

Thorncombe rail

AMYAS Crump, a keen collector of photo slides of the railways of the past, spoke on "Out and About in the Garden of England" to Thorncombe Rail Activities Club, which took members around the county of Kent, with docks, quarries, gas works and even coal mines thrown in.

The next club meeting is the AGM on Wednesday, January 20th, followed by speaker Peter Triggs on 'In Town Tonight', at Thorncombe Village Hall (TA20 4NE), start 7:30pm. Non-members welcome, refreshments, free parking.

AXMOUTH

AN extraordinary meeting was held in November to discuss the future of Axmouth WI. Members have been unable to form a committee for 2016, mainly due to ill health. Mary Andrews from DFWI advised and a vote was held to suspend the Axmouth WI for three years from end December 2015.

The committee had worked hard to lay on a Christmas party/farewell high tea. Special thanks to Sue Barnard for the tea. Each member was presented with a cyclamen plant, Denise with a hamper of goodies and garden ornaments, and treasurer Sue and secretary Lorraine with garden tokens. Sue Barnard won the flower of the month and monthly competitions.

Axmouth WI, formed circa 1950s, may be in suspension but all came away with many happy memories of such a friendly WI.

ALL SAINTS

AT December's meeting Bonny Sartin, formerly of 'The Yetties', entertained members with songs, prose and poems, followed by a slap-up festive tea.

Rather than a 'Secret Santa' members donated food items to the Sunshine Food Bank.

Next meeting: Tuesday, January 12th, 2.30pm, All Saints Village Hall, with Denise Dearman from Trading Standards. Visitors and new members welcome.

KILMINGTON

MEMBERS and husbands were thanked for their hard work, especially Geoff Bellworthy who made a sandwich board for notices for future events. The Soup and Sweet lunch raised £400. Names were taken for the County Quiz. Mollie Bond spoke on the Titanic disaster.

Letters were read from County office. Gambling law changes mean no longer being able to join the WI 500 club. There will be crochet at the Craft and Skills meeting. The meeting closed at 9.15pm.

Next meeting is a members social evening with members providing food, on January 14th at 7pm in the Village Hall.

Kilminster hosts the Group meeting in March.

Kilminster Royal British Legion awards

THE efforts of eight long-serving Poppy Appeal collectors in Kilminster have been formally recognised, writes Anders Larson.

Bill Barker (ex-Royal Artillery) received a certificate for collecting over 25 years and a Merit Badge, Gerry Hurford (ex-Royal Army Service Corps) and his wife Pearl earned 15-year certificates and badges, Simon Heighway (ex-RAF) and his wife Gill as well as Margaret Andrews were awarded 10-year certificates and Jennie Giles with Louise Quincey earned 5-year certificates.

In the two weeks of the Poppy Appeal, ending on Remembrance Sunday last year, £2,783 was raised in Kilminster, a remarkable total for a small village.

The Branch Chairman, Commander Stafford Seward OBE RN (Ret'd), thanked the collectors and Poppy Appeal co-ordinators Caroline and Brian Lavender.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

New Year, New Business at East Devon Business Centre

EAST Devon Business Centre is set to welcome its first new tenant of 2016.

The rapidly expanding local authority services business LGRC (Local Government Resource Centre) is taking up new office space at the Centre this month.

LGRC was established in 2014 and its three directors, Nick Randle OBE, Max Goodison and Stuart Wilbur, bring a strong combination of experience of local councils' needs as they provide best practice support services.

Mr Goodison said that location was key to their decision to move to the Business Centre, as well as the flexible space available to run seminars and training courses.

He said: "Honiton is ideal because the town is so close to the A30/303 and M5, giving us great access to and from the South West, South East, and North.

"The Centre suits the needs of a growing business like ours because we do have the option to occupy larger premises on the same site as the business grows.

"We also found that the contractual terms are straightforward and the support services offered - for example, back-office services, reception, and catering - are excellent and just what we need."

LGRC operate nationally and provide a range of consultancy, training and outsourced services, including strategic and community engagement planning, evaluation of new service delivery proposals, organising and running tendering processes for key services and reviewing support resources and systems, including IT.

More than 60 small businesses have developed and grown at the Centre over the last 17 years, supported by an on-site team of professional staff. With easy-in, easy-out flexible monthly terms, the Centre also benefits from superfast broadband and free parking too.

Cllr Philip Skinner, East Devon District Council's Portfolio holder for Economy, said: "We are delighted to welcome LGRC to the East Devon Business Centre. We find that the flexible lease terms and the active business support that we offer gives confidence to small business owners taking that big decision to grow."

New Year Message from Hospiscare

■ LAST year we opened Kings House in Honiton, our new day hospice in East Devon and we are thrilled with the continued support of the local community to provide this service. Since opening we started a third group supporting patients and are working on more services next year.

"I'll let a patient tell you his experience of the new service: 'The new day hospice has got everything you could wish for and more. Everything has been done thoughtfully and is top quality. It's superb and is an absolute credit to Hospiscare and a brilliant resource for the community.'"

We are a local charity operating in East Devon, Exeter and Mid Devon, relying on community support to fund our work providing free, specialist care for terminally ill people. Last year we supported an amazing 2,254 patients as well as their families and friends.

Also, with the help of a grant we introduced a new team of volunteers called care navigators in East Devon. These volunteers work with patients and families to provide friendship and help them find their way around the local health system. The scheme has been so successful we plan to extend it to Exeter and Mid Devon in 2016.

As ever, our fundraisers worked hard in East Devon. Our big fundraising event last year was the Jolly Jaunt which raised £18,000. Our Open Gardens raised £24,500 with 50 gardens opening over the summer. Thank you for supporting all our fundraising events. During 2015 we modernised our logo and branding and named the Exeter hospice Searle House.

Running a charity is not without its challenges and some of you might have noticed our website has been temporarily replaced by a holding page. This was the result of a supplier unexpectedly going out of business but the good news is that we have a new site under construction that will be up and running by the end of February.

So what are our plans for 2016? We want to develop the Hospice at Home scheme that we run with financial support from Seaton League of Friends and extend it to more areas. We are changing our day services to provide opportunities for more patients and carers to benefit from our fabulous facilities and we will be recruiting more volunteer care navigators.

And finally, we have a new vice president, Revd Dame Sarah Mullally, Suffragan Bishop of Crediton. Bishop Sarah visited Searle House in October and we were delighted when she accepted our invitation to join us as a vice president. Bishop Sarah has a distinguished background in nursing being appointed the government's Chief Nursing Officer in 1999.

So a busy year but as always incredibly rewarding. Thank you again for helping us to make every day count for people with a terminal illness, their families and carers.

With my very best wishes to Pulman's readers for a peaceful New Year.

GLYNIS ATHERTON,
Hospiscare Chief Executive

Christmas cards charity says thanks

■ THROUGH your paper I would like to send a huge thank-you to all those involved in the success of Axminster's 'Cards for Good Causes' charity Christmas card shop.

Thank you to our wonderful team of volunteers who cheerfully give their time to run the shop in the 8 weeks before Christmas, to our kind hosts at Trinity House 'Home-in-Style' who made us so welcome, and to all our customers from near and far who came to support their favourite charities. This year we sold cards for 33 different charities, and with at least 70 per cent of the takings going directly to the good causes it really does help them in their work. They are extremely grateful for your support.

On behalf of all those charities and everyone at 'Cards for Good Causes' we wish you a Happy New Year – and hope to see you again in 2016!

Should West Hill be given independence?

■ BEFORE long, the public will be asked if they favour West Hill becoming independent, with its own parish council. This would mean that its representation on Ottery Town Council would cease. However, I am concerned that the debate, in so far as there is one, is being conducted largely on emotional grounds. We are told that West Hill is the largest village in East Devon without its own parish council. That, on its own, does not justify a separation. The possible split has been likened not to a divorce but a child attaining maturity and leaving home. Independence may or may not be desirable. At this stage, I know that my vote will be influenced by facts, not by potentially misleading metaphors. The circular distributed by East Devon District Council was a waste of paper as it provided no background information on the implications of the possible change.

Apart from being told that independence would mean that West Hill residents would have more influence over decisions affecting the village, I have no idea what our potential councillors will have as an overall plan. I understand that some £40,000 would be diverted from Ottery to come to West Hill. How would that be spent? How much of that would be dedicated to duplicating facilities and services already provided and paid for by the town council? A West Hill Parish council would have to find a part-time clerk, who, I understand, would work from home, and would need to have an office, however modest. What, precisely, will be the duties and responsibilities of a West Hill Parish council?

What are the implications for Ottery? I know that many new developments will help bridge the financial gap but how long will it take? People from West Hill will be able to use Ottery facilities and some may feel slightly uncomfortable as they will not be contributing to their costs.

Some of those who favour independence imply that West Hill has not been well served by the town council, notwithstanding the fact that its own representatives sit on the council. I do not accept that and can but note that independence would mean losing the substantial and relevant experience currently available to West Hill from long-serving councillors and town clerk.

As central government is imposing its will increasingly on local communities, in so many ways, including, of course, financial, there is a case for retaining larger groups in the hope that they might have more clout. I accept that the role of the town council is limited. However, voters might ask if this is the time to weaken its position by denying it income whilst a new parish council suffers from voluntarily denying itself the experience of those who have tried to do their best for the entire community.

When some of these points are answered fully, I, and doubtless others, may feel able to support independence but, thus far, I cannot accept that the case has been made.

PHILIP ALGAR,

Thank you after fall

■ I WOULD like to thank everyone who helped me when I fell over due to strong winds when leaving The Original Factory Shop in Seaton.

A woman and a man helped me and staff from the shop offered me blankets. I broke my femur and was taken to the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital but am now recovering at home. Thanks to all.

Whittons Auctioneers & Valuers

WHITTONS Auctioneers and Valuers is primarily a modern take on a traditional service. It combines an up to date approach in the valuation and sale of Antiques and Fine Art, with traditional methods remaining in place. Edward Whitton has over twenty years of auctioneering and valuation experience, having worked alongside his father and grandfather in Exeter in all that time. He is now running his own new saleroom in the heart of Honiton with his wife of ten years, Maria. Together they provide a professional service in the heart of Devon covering all aspects of valuation including those for probate, sale and insurance.

Whilst few fourth generation family trades exist nowadays, the Whittons family are driven by the desire to keep this traditional profession going, and look forward to the fifth generation continuing in the future. We benefit from using the latest technology to reach a global client base for both sellers and buyers alike. Keeping up to date with current market trends and digital advances will ensure that our local auction house continues to provide a traditional modern service to the next generations.

Kilmington Pre-School

SET in the heart of the village, Kilmington Pre-school offers early years education and childcare for 2-5year olds. We run Monday, Wednesday-Friday mornings at Kilmington Village hall. The pre-school was rated good by Ofsted in September 2014.

The children enjoy a spacious hall where they can choose from various fun and educational activities. The children have free access to our well equipped outdoor play area where they learn to grow vegetables in the garden and make fun mud pies in our fabulous mud kitchen (as pictured). The children experience diverse topics throughout the year, including safety (with visits from the police, nurses etc), science, cookery, cel-ebating religious/cultural festivals. We also put on shows for Easter and Christmas.

We are in partnership with Kilmington Primary School, where we share regular sessions following the Early Years curriculum.

We aim to create a happy atmosphere where children learn through play and a variety of experiences preparing them from entry to primary school.

All Saints CE & Beer C of E Primary School

BOTH All Saints CE and Beer C of E Primary Schools have a strong Christian ethos. We are well-equipped schools that are set in beautiful, rural parishes. We were both graded as outstanding in our most recent SIAMS inspections and are proud to be members of The Ark Federation. Five key values are central to our day to day practise and ethos: peace, love, patience, truth and respect.

Staff pride themselves on creating exciting learning opportunities for children within a stimulating environment and ensure children have access to a broad, balanced curriculum. We aim to challenge and inspire children to become confident, lifelong learners in a safe, nurturing environment.

Across the year, we enjoy Literacy days, Maths days and a Big Arts Week to name but a few! We regularly celebrate the many achievements of our learners though celebratory acts of worship and very much enjoy performing to parents at Christmas and in church on a termly basis.

All Saints were graded as good by OFSTED in 2015 who stated that there had been improvements since the last inspection. They also celebrated the range of sports and other clubs on offer outside of lessons as well as our sporting achievements.

Beer is also very competitive on the sporting front and we enjoy some healthy Federation competition between our two schools. The curriculum is planned with pupils' needs in mind and lessons stimulate learning, thus encouraging children to be inquisitive and enthusiastic about their work.

The Ark Federation value and recognise the role that the whole school community play in educating a child. We are committed to working in partnership with parents, carers and other organisations to provide the best opportunities we can.

Chard School

CHARD SCHOOL COMMEMORATES 345 YEARS OF HISTORY

CHARD SCHOOL, founded under the reign of Charles II in 1671, has been educating children on the same site for 345 years this year, and if building could talk then this one would certainly have a lot to say! The school itself is in two Grade 2* listed buildings which merit a mention on Pevsner and which the pupils at the school say remind them of 'Hogwarts'. This year the school is planning to celebrate its 345 years of heritage with a guest speaker, a photo exhibition and a day of activities to commemorate this special milestone.

Chard School is renowned for its high level of academic achievements, small classes, specialist teaching staff and excellent facilities. Why not come and see for yourself? The school's next Open Day is on Saturday 12th March from 9.30am-11.30am. Come along to meet staff and children and take in some of the wonderful historic buildings on the way! www.chard-school.co.uk

St John's International School, Sidmouth UK

St John's celebrates 100% achievement in ISI Inspection

In October 2015, St John's underwent an Inspection by the ISI (Independent Schools Inspectorate). ISI Inspection reports simply outline whether standards have been 'met' or 'not met'. St John's is delighted to announce that in their inspection, 100% of the report's criteria were met. 100% satisfaction was also a figure that featured strongly in the pupils' and parents' questionnaire feedback with the report quoting this highly positive feedback as evidence of the effectiveness of the school across all areas.

Quotes from the report highlight:

Children in the Nursery and Reception follow the EYFS curriculum intertwined with the PYP... They are able to develop personal, social, emotional, physical, communication and language skills from an early age, with other areas of learning gradually introduced. These areas provide for the development of creativity and independence.

100% of parents agreed 'my child is making good progress at the school'

Of the report, new Headmaster Mike Burgess said

'We are absolutely delighted with the outcome of our recent ISI Inspection. We knew that the level of education provision that we were achieving was of an extremely high standard and that we are helping to create well-rounded, highly capable and motivated individuals with a passion for learning and an broad outlook on life, but it is extremely gratifying to have that recognised by the report. We will continue to work on developing our offering, providing local Devon pupils and those from further afield a real and successful alternative for their education. I would like to take this opportunity to thank pupils, staff and parents who make up our community for the tremendous work that they consistently do in order to make our school such a harmonious and productive environment'

Perrott Hill

Sport Scholarship to Perrott Hill

SPORT is held in high esteem at Perrott Hill, everyone delights in taking a breather from the academic rigours of school life to enjoy some fresh air in our beautiful grounds on the Somerset/Dorset borders.

Team games are very important and pupils are expected to work hard both for the team, and for themselves. We find that the lessons they learn on the sports field are invaluable and promote greater awareness of others, better decision making and inspire them to succeed in more general situations.

In recent years Perrott Hill has 'upped its game' on the sporting front with increased investment in both coaches and facilities; this has really paid off with some tremendous results across the sporting spectrum. Perrott Hill has stepped onto the national, area and county stage in a variety of sports including rugby, cricket, hockey, netball, badminton, skiing, show jumping and sailing.

Perrott Hill is currently welcoming applications for Sport, Drama, Music, Art and Academic Scholarships. Local talent to feature in Walliams' Gangsta Granny

FROM THE acclaimed producers of George's Marvellous Medicine and Horrible Histories, Birmingham Stage will bring its production of David Walliams's Gangsta Granny to the Exeter Northcott Theatre in February.

David Walliams said: "I am over the moon that Gangsta Granny is coming to the stage. It's the most popular of all my books and I am sure this production by the brilliant Birmingham Stage Company will delight not just children but their parents – and of course grandparents."

Joining the Gangsta Granny cast in Exeter will be local dancer, Ellen Welch. Ellen impressed throughout the audition process, which took place in partnership with Dance in Devon, and Exeter Northcott Theatre is excited that Ellen is returning to Exeter, where much of her early dance training took place.

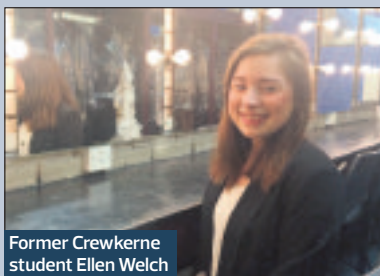

Eighteen year old Ellen, currently attending the School of Ballet Theatre UK in Leicestershire, was originally educated in Crewkerne and at Swindon Dance. Much of her education, however, through Swindon's Centre for Advanced Training in Dance scheme, saw Ellen training at the University of Exeter's Drama department.

Ellen said "I'm really looking forward to performing at Exeter Northcott Theatre. I can't wait to experience what it will be like to be in a proper, professional show."

Gangsta Granny will be performed at Exeter's Northcott Theatre from Tuesday, February 2nd to Saturday, February 6th.

Tickets are priced between £15-£23, or £42-£66 for family tickets. For more details or to book visit www.exeternorthcott.co.uk or call 01392 726363.

Marvellous movies at the Beehive

MARK RYLANCE and Tom Hanks add odd-couple chemistry to the Oscar-nominated Bridge of Spies on Friday, January 15th at 7.30pm. "Cold War, Warm wit. Spielberg brings humour to the spy thriller genre" - Mark Kermode, The Guardian 4/5 star review.

Then there is Love and Mercy biopic of lead Beach Boy singer songwriter, Brian Wilson on Friday, January 22nd.

The subject is Brian Wilson's tumultuous life and creative genius which has blend of fact and fiction in this latter-day tale of love's triumph over madness and corruption. "I found myself marvelling at Paul Dano's uncanny portrayal of Wilson in the 60s, struggling to detect the moment when the actor's voice segues into that of the real-life musician, dazzled by the construction of stunningly authentic-looking faux archive footage" - Mark Kermode, The Guardian 4/5 star review.

In between both these cracking films, The Beehive has the Discover Arts film which guides students and art lovers through the best pieces in Florence and The Uffizi Gallery on Saturday, January 16th.

STRICTLY COME FLAMENCO

THE passion and power of flamenco return to Ilminster Arts Centre this Saturday, January 16th and Saturday, February 6th – and you can join in!

Back by popular demand, these introductory workshops, led by skilled flamenco practitioner Aneta Skut, will give beginners the chance to try their hands (and feet!) at this fascinating and culturally rich dance form.

Participants will experience the flavour of the Spanish south, through listening to flamenco music, clapping the rhythm and dancing.

After an initial warm up, the workshop will focus on footwork and arm exercises, and flamenco technique before participants put their newly acquired dance skills into practice in a short choreographed piece.

No specialist equipment is needed but participants should wear clothing that allows a full range of movement. Ladies taking part in the workshop are advised to wear shoes with a slight heel (not slip-ons), while male participants should wear formal shoes (not trainers).

Come along, clap your hands, stamp your feet and ENJOY this exciting new workshop at the Arts Centre!

Aneta's previous flamenco workshop at the Arts Centre was a sell-out, so advance booking is recommended. To book place, telephone the box office on 01460 54973

Three Early Short Films by Frank Borzage

THREE early works by one of the most distinctive and undiscovered directors to have emerged from Hollywood, Frank Borzage, with a new live score by Kate Lissauer, will be shown at Ilminster's Warehouse Theatre this weekend.

The films are 'The Pitch O'Chance' (1916, 25 Mins), 'The Pilgrim' (1916, 28 mins), and 'Nugget Jim's Pardner' (1916, 25 mins).

Beginning his career as a successful and sought-after actor, Borzage began directing short films in 1915. Unlike many of his peers, he chose to reject the sensational, overstated obsession with action and spectacle, which was a common ingredient of the cinema of the time, and focussed instead on emotional and sensual elements of the stories he filmed. Kate's programme contains three short Westerns which he both directed and starred in. Unusually for the Western genre, Borzage's films contain no chases, robberies or dramatic rescues; he presents, in contrast, portraits of three very specific individuals and the changes they undergo from seemingly random and unremarkable encounters. Novice that he was, Borzage's bold rejection of the established rules of film-making gives a modern audience a wonderful, refreshing look at a long-established film tradition.

Providing a musical accompaniment to these three films, luminary of American old-time country music Kate Lissauer is joined by master of the five string banjo, John Whelan, and Jason Titley, arguably the UK's finest Bluegrass guitarist. Together they provide a live performance of Kate's score for the films, combining original composition and arrangements of traditional material.

Kate began her career as a champion fiddler in her home state of Maryland and is also an expert claw-hammer and old-time three finger banjo picker, a guitarist and an excellent singer.

John Whelan has been playing country and mountain music on the five-string banjo for many years. John has learned from and been inspired by some of America's finest pickers, and has developed a creative and versatile style, including his own brand of two and three-finger picking.

Jason Titley was a long-time member of The Daily Planet, which toured extensively throughout Europe and in the US and left three landmark albums in its wake. Jason also appears on Kate's solo album Stately Mansion and regularly plays in Kate's band, Buffalo Gals. Jason's flair for improvisation and deep understanding of rhythm - he is also a percussionist - always makes his playing engaging and exciting.

Kate Lissauer presents 'Sonic Silents' at Warehouse Theatre, Ilminster, on Saturday, January 16th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £9 (concessions £8, children/students £7), available from Lanes Garden Shop (Silver Street) or by calling 07943 779880.

Speakeasy at the Arts Centre

TOP jazz pianist Mike Denham returns to Ilminster Arts Centre to host another of his 'Speak-Easy Nights' on Friday, January 22nd. Time flies when you're having fun – it's hard to believe that this will be Mike's 18th SpeakEasy at the Arts Centre. He should be given the keys to the Meeting House at this rate!

Joining Mike for this landmark event is jazz guitarist Martin Wheatley.

An extremely versatile and accomplished musician, Martin also plays banjo, ukulele, mandolin and steel guitar, specialising in the musical genres of the 1920s, 30s and 40s.

The show starts at 8pm on Friday, January 22nd. Tickets are £12, and a pre-show supper is available for £13 at 7pm, but must be pre-booked. For more details and to book call 01460 54973 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Flying Folk trio prove three into one does go

THE LATEST folk concert at Ilminster Arts Centre brings together three young West Country musicians who have been tipped for great things. Louise Jordan, Hattie Briggs and Jemima Farey have all performed at IAC previously and for this return visit they will each play an individual set, followed by a final set where all three will perform together.

Louise Jordan's music has been described as 'a masterclass in songwriting'. Fusing classical influences and a folk sensibility, Louise accompanies herself on piano and guitar to play original works and musical settings of literature as well as her own arrangements of traditional material. BBC Radio 2's doyen of folk Mike Harding has described her work as 'absolutely, totally and completely, brilliant'.

Hattie Briggs is a Gloucestershire-based singer songwriter who released her critically acclaimed debut album Red & Gold in 2015. Drawing inspiration from Eva Cassidy, James Taylor and Joni Mitchell, her music blends folk and pop. Recently labelled 'one to watch' by the Independent, her profile has been growing since being nominated for the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award 2014. She completed her first national tour last spring supporting Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman.

Somerset's own Jemima Farey released her debut album Good Days at the age of just 17, showcasing her ability to write poignant ballads as well as lively and sometimes humorous songs. Singer-songwriter Jemima is a captivating performer, incorporating themes into her music such as family, loved ones and cherished places. Her delicate guitar work provides the perfect accompaniment for her mesmerising voice.

This will be an unforgettable evening of fantastic folk music, performed by three young talents as their careers take off. Just remember, you saw them here first!

Flying Folk perform at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House this Friday, January 15th, from 8pm. Tickets are £10, available from www.themeetinghouse.org.uk or by calling 01460 54973.

Rob's Brain Show

FOLLOWING sell-out performances at Edinburgh and across the UK in 2014, one of Britain's finest comedians Rob Newman is back on the road with his brand new show, 'The Brain Show', in which he takes a sceptical approach to some grand claims made by neuroscience.

After volunteering for a brain-imaging experiment meant to locate the part of the brain that lights up when you're in love, Rob emerges with more questions than answers Can brain scans read our minds? Are we our brains? How can you map the mind? If each brain has more connections than there are atoms in the universe, then how big will a map of the brain have to be?

Seeking answers to these questions, The Brain Show explores everything from the thought-processes of stripy spiders to the neurobiology of romantic love, and from Alan Turing in a fortune-teller's tent to Isaac Newton having a meltdown at a County Fair.

The Brain Show features weird and wonderful electronic props such as a live brain-imaging electroencephalograph (EEG) hat, which gives the audience a read-out of Rob's fluctuating mental state during the show.

Rob Newman brings 'The Brain Show' to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Sunday, January 31st. Doors and bar open 7pm, show 8pm.

Tickets cost £15 (£12 concessions), and are available online at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

Pulman's PropertyView

HAPPY NEW YEAR! Mark Goodenough of Pennys Estate Agents offers some thoughts on the property year ahead

WELCOME to 2016 and a new era in property. It promises to be an eventful-packed year. The way has already been prepared for a change in April when higher stamp duty rates are applied to properties bought for buy-to-let or second home purposes. So expect a busy time for the next few months as buyers rush to complete purchases before the axe falls.

And what is happening with the ripple effect – the radiating waves of consequence that the London property market has on housing elsewhere in the UK? London now seems more disconnected than ever from the rest of Britain, as prices have spiralled from highly expensive to largely unaffordable over the past few years. And don't think for a moment that the unaffordable tag does not affect the super- and even uber-rich. It does.

So what about those who do not want to buy a holiday home or investment property – those people who merely want a roof over their heads? Well 2016 may be eventful-packed for them also including a possible lift in house prices of between five and eight per cent. But it will be a slow and frustrating start. 2015 saw ten straight months of selling instruction decline. The stock of unsold properties is currently the lowest ever recorded. The law of supply and demand suggests this should have a positive effect on prices in many parts of the UK. Like global warming, the UK housing market is open to conflicting interpretation.

So 2016 will certainly not be without its challenges in the property market. But we are used to handling challenges for our clients. Our advice, as always, is purchase carefully within your means – and this includes your means if mortgage interest rates rise. This year will not be a perfect one for property speculation without the greatest prudence and care. But it will be a good year for settling into a home that provides safety, warmth and shelter for you and your family in these uncertain times. Whatever is going on in the world any year is a good year to do that.

For a discussion regarding your property needs, whether buying or selling throughout East Devon in 2016, Mark can be contacted on 01297 22224.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Jim Rose

Qualified Window Service Engineer

My name is Jim Rose and I am a fully qualified window and door service engineer, repairing double glazed windows and doors in the Exeter and East Devon area for over 30 years. before establishing my own repair business 20 years ago I worked for national companies Anglian and Europlas where I gained vast experience in many areas of my trade and excellent customer care skills.

I specialise in Misty double glazed sealed unit replacement, this is when it looks like there is condensation between the glass, all my replacement units are manufactured locally and carry a 5 year guarantee. I measure and fit all my own units which helps to keep costs competitive.

If your windows and doors are draughty, leaking or not closing correctly there are things that can be done to resolve these problems, sometimes it is just a simple adjustment or maybe new hinges or closing mechanism, no matter how old they are there is normally a solution many parts are still available.

I offer free quotations with no call out charge and all my repair work carries a guarantee.

I can be contacted on

Kia joins Go Ultra Low campaign as plug-in cars become default choice for savvy motorists

KIA Motors has added its weight to the UK government and auto industry-backed campaign for ultra low emission vehicles (ULEVs) – Go Ultra Low. As the popularity of alternatively powered cars and vans continues to rise, the Korean manufacturer's move reinforces the direction of travel for the automotive industry.

The Go Ultra Low campaign exists to highlight the benefits of using a plug-in vehicle and encourage consumers and businesses to make the switch to electric. Transport Minister, Andrew Jones MP said: "The UK has one of the fastest growing ultra low emission vehicle markets in the world and I warmly welcome Kia to the Go Ultra Low campaign. It is another example of leading car and van manufacturers sharing our ambitions for this exciting and increasingly popular technology."

"British drivers have a wider choice of cleaner, greener cars than ever before and we have increased our support for plug-in vehicles to £600 million over the course of this parliament to cut emissions, create jobs and support our cutting-edge industries."

Since pure electric and plug-in hybrid cars became available as a mainstream choice in 2010, the market has grown rapidly as choice expanded. Today, there are 30 different ultra low emission vehicles on sale offering a wide variety of model sizes and performance attributes, from family cars and vans to SUVs and sports cars.

Poppy Welch, Head of Go Ultra Low, said: "Kia is a great addition to the Go Ultra Low campaign, and its Kia Soul EV fits well alongside the wide variety of adaptable and practical plug-in vehicles we represent. The addition of Kia will boost our goal to raise awareness of ultra low emission vehicles, and their cost-effective benefits, in addition to broadening choice for motorists. Their inclusion in the campaign shows there really is a plug-in car for everyone."

The addition of Kia to the Go Ultra Low campaign highlights how ULEVs have become the norm for car buyers, alongside conventionally powered vehicles, such as those with diesel and petrol engines. The influx of more plug-in models to the market has boosted uptake of ULEVs in recent years, with more than 26,000 motorists making the leap to efficient, economical and low-emission vehicles in 2015, more than doubling the size of the market in a single year.

Paul Philpott, President and CEO of Kia Motors UK and Ireland, said: "Kia Motors recently set out its roadmap for low emission cars so joining the Go Ultra Low campaign was an easy decision for us. The electric and plug-in hybrid vehicle market will grow rapidly in the coming years and we are committed to meeting the increased demand. In addition to our Soul EV, we will be introducing a range of advanced new products and technologies to add to the growing selection of plug-in cars already available within the Go Ultra Low consortium."

Electric cars can be driven for as little as 2p per mile, compared with 10-12p for a conventionally powered car, meaning drivers can potentially save around £800 each year. Added to this, the variety of cars available – from city runarounds and family hatchbacks to, SUVs and sports cars – an extensive charging network and growing range of plug-in hybrids boasting extensive ranges – some as long as 700 miles, means there is every reason for motorists to go ultra low and opt for an electric car.

Go Ultra Low exists to help motorists understand the benefits, cost savings and capabilities of the raft of ultra low emission vehicles on the market. The collaborative campaign is the first of its kind, bringing together a consortium of vehicle manufacturers, Government and the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT). Further details are available at www.GoUltraLow.com.

Honda launches Limited Edition Civic and Black Edition CR-V

▲ Honda Civic Limited Edition

HONDA UK is set to launch two new special editions of the popular Civic and CR-V next month. Both arriving into dealer forecourts from the start of February, the Civic Limited Edition is just £14,995 on the road and the CR-V Black Edition starts from £29,995.

Three years after the last version of the CR-V Black Edition first launched, Honda has revived the more sporty, premium look. Available in 4WD with a choice of petrol or diesel and manual or automatic, the new CR-V Black Edition starts from £29,995 for the manual 2.0 i-VTEC and tops out at £33,730 for the automatic 1.6 i-DTEC.

On the exterior, owners will get running boards, a tailgate spoiler, 19" black alloys, a gloss black front grille as well as gloss black skid plates on the front and rear. The high-quality full leather interior features contrasting stitching with an embossed Black Edition logo on the front and rear seats while the door panels and arm rests are also leather. The interior is finished off with premium carpet mats complete with the Black Edition logo.

Based on the standard 1.4 i-VTEC S manual, the new Civic Limited Edition lands in dealerships from the start of February and comes with 16" aero alloys, body coloured wheel arches, front panel and rear skirt to give the car a slightly more aggressive sporty look. Available in Brilliant Sporty Blue, Polished Metal, Milano Red and Crystal Black, the new car is priced at £14,995 on the road.

Philip Crossman, Managing Director at Honda UK, commented: "This time last year we had the oldest range on the market and were about to launch the latest Civic and CR-V. This limited edition Civic and the Black Edition CR-V are fantastic additions to the core product line up and will make for a great start to 2016."

GEM warns motorists as winter weather threatens

ROAD Safety and breakdown organisation GEM Motoring Assist is urging motorists to take extra care as winter weather is predicted next week.

Road journeys are more difficult and treacherous when there is a fall of snow, and GEM is encouraging drivers to make good use of some simple safety tips in order to reduce the chance of risk, delay and difficulty.

- Don't drive if you don't really need to. The easiest way to avoid trouble from winter conditions is not to venture out in the car. If bad weather threatens, or has already arrived, then postpone your journey and eliminate the risk of becoming stuck somewhere.
- Listen for weather updates, and plan your travel accordingly.
- If you have to make a road journey, then prepare a set of essential items, including shovel, fully charged mobile phone, torch, ice scraper, food, water, jump leads, first aid kit, warm clothes and a supply of sand or gravel to assist with grip if your wheels are spinning.
- If you're out on the road in snow, then keep your speed down, leave plenty of space between yourself and the vehicle in front, give room to snowploughs and gritter trucks, and be ready for sudden, rapid deteriorations in conditions.
- Remember that driving in winter conditions can be hard work, so ensure you build in breaks on your journeys.
- Take a look at the GEM e-Book on winter driving. It's available for download free of charge from <http://www.motoringassist.com/winter-driving/>
- GEM also has a video on staying safe during winter road conditions. You can view it at <http://www.motoringassist.com/motoring-advice-old/videos/winter-driving/>

GEM chief executive David Williams MBE comments: "Winter weather seldom arrives without warning. So if you need to drive, have a plan ready that can help you delay a journey. Agree to postpone a meeting or a visit if it's not vital. In that way, you're avoiding a lot of potential trouble for yourself, and ensuring you won't be putting additional strain on emergency and recovery crews, who are sure to be at full stretch in the coming days."

"If you're out and about when snow hits, then the simple preparation measures suggested above really can make a big difference to help keep you safe."

Infiniti Network opens up in South West England

INFINITI has announced the introduction of a new centre and a new service partner, to cover customer sales and aftersales requirements in the South West of England from January 2016.

Infiniti Centre Bristol, part of the Motorline Group, is expected to be operational from late January 2016. Located on the Bath Road the centre will utilise a temporary structure until the full redevelopment work, to meet with the Infiniti Retail Environment Design Initiative (REDI) standards, has been completed.

Glen Obee, Chairman of Motorline Infiniti Centre Bristol, said: "We are pleased to be joining Infiniti at this time just as the brand is starting to introduce many new and exciting products into its portfolio. The Infiniti Q30 will appeal to a far wider audience and we are looking forward to welcoming our customers to the new car and the Infiniti Brand."

Providing a 'closer to home' aftersales support service, Infiniti will be adding several Service Partners across the UK. These Partners are designed to complement the Infiniti centres by providing a more local aftersales service expected by both private and fleet customers.

The first aftersales support centre, opening up in January 2016, will be Service Partner Exeter. The facility will be incorporated within the Nissan JFE dealership located on Grace Rd, Central, Exeter and will provide a full customer support process for all Infiniti products. Personnel at the Service Centre have been specifically trained in the Infiniti customer service program to ensure the standards expected by Infiniti customers are continually maintained.

The new facilities join Infiniti just as the brand registers new sales performance records in the UK, as well as globally. In January 2016, the new Q30 Active Compact, produced in the Sunderland manufacturing plant, arrives in Infiniti showrooms and is available with four different engines, manual and automatic (dual clutch) transmissions and in both two or four wheel drive formats. Prices start from £20,550.

Later in 2016 the QX30 Active Crossover will arrive, providing a higher stance than the Q30 with more of an SUV like appearance. This will be followed by the two door sports coupe Q60, due to have its first global public exposure at this year's Detroit Auto show.

Fixture backlog becoming a concern

Even Axminster's state-of-the-art drainage can't cope!

ilminster aaCharity boost from anglers

THE latest charity match on Hebditch's Pond saw some great weights recorded among the 15 competing anglers despite some horrendous weather conditions in the morning.

Graham Field drew peg 4 and caught all day on the feeder and the pole for a comfortable win with 80lb 6oz of carp.

Robin Cox was second with 56lb 9oz of carp on the pole from peg 5 and Scott Russell was third with 51lb 12oz of carp on the lead and the pole from peg 15.

The top silvers weight was landed by Roger Russell who had 51b 4oz of small roach from peg 1. Club spokesman Jamie Rich said: "A massive thanks to Harry Hebditch for inviting us and clearing the pegs - the anglers raised £75 for his chosen charity".

Silvers result; 1st Roger Russell (Tackleuk) - 51b 4oz, 2nd Karl Aplin (Ilminster) - 11b 2oz, 3rd Gordon Aplin (Ilminster) - 7oz.

After more torrential rain, 13 members were back at Dillington Pond on Sunday for round five of the V.E.S. Precision league.

The pond was very coloured and, although the leading weights were good, some of the competitors found it hard going.

Jamie Rich (Against Men and Fish) had the top weight on the day with 11lb 6oz of quality roach and rudd from peg 18, he caught on maggots early on before switching to caster.

Graham Field (Taunton) took second place with 8lb 10oz of roach from peg 2 and Scott Russell (Tackleuk) was third with 8lb 4oz on the pole and caster from peg 17.

After five matches Graham Field leads the league with six points followed by Jamie Rich on nine and Martin Heard on ten.

Sections: A - Bruce Hunt (Tiverton) - 6lb, B - Terry Morgan (Ilminster) and Martin Heard (Mosella) - both with 2lb 6oz.

Amy at the double for AVR's

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davy

SIX Honiton runners travelled to Dawlish on Sunday for the 'OH MY OBELISK' race which is about 11 miles long and multi-terrain.

All runners found the going very tough with mud and puddles in the fields and a few hills along the way.

Runners are taken up to the Obelisk and then back down again.

Steve Davey was first back for Honiton in 2 hours 41 minutes. Mark Dallyn followed about a minute and a half later.

Sharon Wells and Tony Peek were both were pleased with their times as Sharon took 15 mins off last year's time with Tony taking off eight minutes despite the lengthened course.

Shane and Michaela Hudd ran the race together as this was the furthest they have run for some time.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

THERE was a busy start to the 2016 season for Axe Valley Runners, despite the inclement weather and challenging conditions.

On New Year's Day 190 runners turned out for the CHARD FLYER. AVR's Amy Greenhalgh was first female, just missing out on a sub 40-minute 10K. Sue Venn had a good run, finishing 146th in 1:02:07.

There was more AVR action at the AXMOUTH CHALLENGE. Despite torrential rain at the start line and a slightly shortened course due to saturated ground, the mood was high spirited.

AVR scooped both the first male and first female prize in the 10K. AVR's Jake Smith, 57:43, finished a superb run with a fast sprint down the steep Steps Lane to hold off Exmouth Harriers' Michael Robinson and win by 13 seconds.

Amy Greenhalgh, 1:06, had a great race, running hard from the start to earn her second win of the year 6th overall.

There were fantastic results in the age categories as well, with Clare Hansford 22nd, 1:15:59, Eleanor Wood 25th, 1:17:32, Andy Sayers 44th, 1:31:37 and Angela Kerr 51st, 1:35:56 all finishing first in their category. There were great times also from Luke Reed 8th, 1:07:39, Samantha Miller 46th, 1:32:01 and Martin Kerr 58th, 1:50:06.

There were two AVR's in the five-mile event: Junior Flo Swan, 39 minutes, put in another fast and well-paced performance to finish first female, second overall and Jane Calvert 8th, 1:00:49.

In the three-mile race Ollie Rogers stormed home to clinch first place in 23 mins, a full four minutes ahead of the next runner. Holly Eyre was 3rd, 28:43 and Finley Cox, 4th, 31:55, both had cracking runs.

The incessant rain briefly stopped and the wind abated for Sunday's 11.8mile Dawlish-based 'OH MY OBELISK' but conditions underfoot were still very soggy.

AVR had six runners amongst about 200 entrants for the race which was won by Torbay AC's Aaron Tocknell in 1:16:50.

Matt Clist, back to his best, was 3rd in 1:18:16 followed closely by Tim Lenton who won the Male V40 award taking 1:19:25.

Next home was Ian Apps 48th, 1:35:48 then came birthday boy Graham Newton who won the Male V60 award in finishing 61st in 1:38:01.

Eleanor Wood was next home 96th, 1:44:41, running despite not having eaten anything for four days due to a stomach bug, and was delighted just to have finished at all.

Steve Haines completed the AVR line-up and came home 119th, 1:48:30.

CHARD ROAD RUNNERS with Paul Masters

NEW Year's day saw the sixth running of the Chard Flyer 10km race with record numbers of 189 entrants.

The race started at Stringfellow Park. The runners then ran through Knowle St Giles before starting a one-mile climb up to the halfway point.

A steep descent down Cricket Lane then saw the runners race through the reservoir and then back into Chard in lower Touches. The finish line was at Chard Cricket Club.

As this was the first race of the 2016 Somerset Series the start was fast as those hoping to be amongst the leaders sped off.

The winner was Phillip Bridge from Wells City Harriers in 35 Mins 40 Secs. The first lady home was Amy Greenhalgh of Axe Valley Runners in 40:40.

First home for the host club, Chard Road Runners, was Wayne Loveridge in 4th place.

Leaders pushed all the way - but late goal rocks Chard

Chard A 1 North Devon A 2

A GOAL five minutes from time denied Chard a deserved point against table-toppers North Devon in a game which started and finished in torrential rain and blustery conditions throughout.

The visitors took an early lead, scoring on the follow up to their first penalty corner after Callum Baillie had saved the first effort and Chard had to work hard to hold their own as North Devon looked to build upon their advantage.

Chard were still without the injured defender Jason Goddard but the back four was bolstered by Paul Tratt for his first game of the season and the first 2nd XI appearance for many a year by Steve Dare.

The hosts set up with five across middle and captain Gareth Eggle as lone striker to deny their opponents free rein in midfield and, as the first half progressed, this tactic bore fruit.

When North Devon lost possession inside their own 25 metre line, Harry Felgate swept the ball wide to Harvey Denning whose powerful cross shot was diverted into the net at almost point blank range by Eggle. Had it not been for a couple of saves from the visitors' veteran keeper, Chard would have gone in to half time with the lead.

The second half started as an even contest. Tratt got a vital touch to a goalbound shot from another penalty corner to guide the ball just wide and Baillie made a number of fine saves.

At the other end Eggle had a penalty corner shot saved and Denning and Kyle Wheaton also went close.

But a hard earned point was snatched away at the death when a follow-up effort bobbled into the net after Chard's defence had half cleared another penalty corner chance.

Chard: C Baillie, P Tratt, S Dare, N Liggins, S Mahoney, J Spurdle, A Critchley, N Parkinson, T King, H Felgate, G Eggle (capt), H Denning, K Wheaton, T Goss.

Honiton Ladies off to a flyer

CHARD by Sandra Sumpter

THE Milford & Dornor Mixed Triples League resumed after the Christmas break.

Musbury 12-8 Trull; The first half saw the lead change constantly. Trull scored well on two ends taking them to 8-5 after 10 ends. But Musbury then took the final four ends to win 12-8.

Greyhounds 12-13 Hurricanes; This was a very exciting match with the score tied going into the final end. Hurricanes just managed to take the vital shot to win the end and the match.

Canaries 7-21 Harlequins; This match was tougher for Harlequins than the score may suggest. On one end Harlequins lead sent the jack towards the edge of the mat. If it had gone off this would have given two shots to Canaries. Harlequins then got into their stride and pulled away.

THE Seniors played their first 15-hole stableford competition of the New Year.

In first place, with 32 points, was Phil Wilkins (hc 14), in second with 29 was John Mant (hc 19) and in third place with 26 was Peter Hornsby (hc 26).

THE Ladies were lucky as the course was declared open despite all the rain that had fallen in previous days.

Conditions were extremely difficult but the sun did shine on the few players who took to the course for a Greensomes Stableford.

Totally unfazed by the conditions, the winners were Sue Ritchie & Henrietta Bradshaw with 36 points, a truly great result as Henrietta has hardly played at all in recent months. Runners up were Chris Pearce & Brenda Hyde with 28.

Seniors

AT the December AGM

Mike Watts handed over the captaincy role to Allan Pollock, with Mike Sennitt becoming this year's vice. Stan Squire has taken over as treasurer and Angus Falconer as secretary.

Last Friday we emerged from four weeks of rain-induced hibernation to do battle in a Stableford competition coupled with the second round of the Eclectic where some very creditable scores were achieved considering the watery conditions and some temporary greens. Jim Wallis topped Division One with an excellent 39 points. Alan Pollock was second with Eric Short, Stan Squire and Roger Matthews taking the remaining spots.

In Division Two the long-hitting Peter Blake prevailed with 36 points, followed by Howard Pritchard, Dave Lee, Rod Armitage and Bill Phillips. Two's were achieved by Dave Lee on the 2nd and Eric Short on the 4th - each carrying off a large number of balls for next time.
